Subject: WNA Policy on Social Responsibility

WNA is committed to providing a safe, ethical, harassment-free and non-discriminatory work environment and expects all affiliates, employees, suppliers and contractors to follow these principles.

We do not employ and will not enter into a business relationship with any firm that employs bonded labor or child labor. We are not involved in human trafficking and/or slavery and will not enter into a business relationship with any firm that is involved with human trafficking and/or slavery.

WNA audits its facilities as well as its overseas vendors via qualified independent third parties for compliance with these principles.
